

Safety Instructions on the Outapi irrigation site

Omalombwelo kombinga ye ameno monhele yo kutekela mOutapi

For your own safety please consider always the following advice during your work.

Omolwa eameno loye mwene, li ufa alushe komalombwelo aa efimbo loilonga yoye.

What to do during and after work?

Eshi una oku ninga ngee tolongo nongee wamane?

Why?

Omolwashike?

© majivecka - Fotolia.com

Always wear gum boots.

Alushe djala eenghaku doilonga keemhadi.

- protect your feet from accidents
Amena eemhadi doye koiponga
- be not in contact directly with the soil and eventual worms and bacteria
Inokwata ile u lyate edu uli eemhadi kombada, oshoyo omainyo neembakiteli

© kelly marken - Fotolia.com

Always wear work gloves.

Alushe djala omanyala aa oilonga.

- protect your hands from accidents
Amena omake oye koiponga
- be not in contact directly with the soil and eventual worms and bacteria
Ino kwata edu oshoyoo omainyo neembakiteli uli eenyala ile eemhadi kombada

© CuveWaters

Always wear breathing protection when dealing with pesticides and fertilizer.

Alushe djala okaima ko kufudila ngee to longo nomiti dokudipaa oupuka osho yoo ngee tolongo noushoso.

- protect yourself from chemical substances
liamena keechemical (oikwamiti)

© borgogni - Thinkstock

Wash your hands with soap after work.

Kosha eenyala doye alushe konima yoilonga.

- clean yourself from eventual remains of pesticides etc
Likosha alushe opo u ku feko omiti doku dipaa oupuka odo pamwe dawila kolutu loye nosho tuu
- clean yourself from remains of soil and eventual worms or bacteria
Likosha alushe opo u ku feko edu oshoyoo omainyo neembakiteli dikwao odo pamwe de kuwilla